File Complaint In Manipulation Of Butter Price

New York, Jan. 4.—A criminal information charging the dairy men's League Cooperative Association, Inc., with manipulation of the price of butter on the New York Mercantile exchange was filed in federal court today by Attorney John F. X. McGhee.

The criminal information, similar to an indictment, stemmed from the drop in ten cents a pound in the wholesale butter price on Dec. 26. The information charged manipulation during five days last month. The government alleged violation of a section of the United States exchange act. It provides that any person who manipulates or attempts to manipulate the price of any commodity in interstate commerce shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

A fine of $10,000 or a year in jail or both were possible at McGhee's discretion. McGhee said his investigation had been conducted in cooperation with the department of agriculture for the past week. McGhee said the investigation disclosed that in the five-day period from Dec. 18 to 24, inclusive, the dairy men's league put into operation a program, previously arranged, under which 688,000 pounds of butter were sold at a fixed price of 84 cents per pound. McGhee said the alleged operation cost $61,575.

The district attorney said Rabinovich admitted under questioning that he had undertaken "to support the butter market at not less than 84 cents per pound in order to maintain the average price for butter during the month of December."

Milk prices are hinged to butter prices. Rabinovich, McGhee said, stated that he supported the butter price because if it had dropped below 84 cents, it would have caused a loss of 22 cents on each 100 pounds of the price of milk produced by members of the league in January.

Indulging in this Rabinovich was Leon H. Chapin, Harry Benson and Herbert Seiler. McGhee said he had undertaken to plead to the charges Jan. 12.

Soldier Is Unruly
On Big Four Train;
Arrested By Police

Mark E. Toles, 30-year-old Negro soldier who was riding a big four train from Chicago to Lynchburg, Va., last night, imbued too freely and suddenly got the idea that he would like to kill the conductor but everyone else on the train.

The Negro conceived the idea as the train neared Kansas. City police were summoned to the station to take the soldier into custody. Lt. Edmund Klafka and Patrolman William Cullins, who had been on duty at the station, answered the call and in responding to the soldier's demand for a drink, the soldier refused to take the drink and instead demanded a drink of beer. The soldier was taken to the station and arrested by Sgt. Earl Parker of the New York Central railroad.

The prisoner is scheduled to appear before Police Magistrate Ed Moeniche this afternoon.

GOP Vow To—

Vice. The GOP had 29 members seated against 21 Democrats. The 11 Democrats would give them a 40 to 20 majority for debate limitation.

But the 80th congress went into its second day with Democrats still in the senate saddle despite the 51-48 majority the GOP had in the house when all are sworn in. Republicans had already organized the house and adjourned it till Monday.

Declines Resolution
President Truman may deliver his state of the union message then if the senate declines to take it up. The GOP broke an agreement that it would not take time to take the message to the house for a joint session.

Democratic Leader Barkley (R-Ky.) offered to help out with a resolution which would give Billie the seat temporarily, fix the start of the session on Jan. 14 and require only a majority vote to determine whether he should remain.

Taft, chairman of the GOP steering committee, declined. He said he believed that once Billie got in, he couldn't legally be removed without a two-thirds vote.

The GOP hope for debate limitation. It rested mainly on Democrats who voted with Republicans yesterday to postpone indefinitely any resolution.

Overton (D-Ia.) to seek Senator McGhee and try him later. The 11 were Senators Pepper of Florida, Downey of California, Fulbright of Arkansas, O'Brien of Rhode Island, Lucas of Illinois, and Murray of Connecticut. Murray of Montana, Myers of Pennsylvania, Taylor of Idaho, Tydings of Maryland and Wagner of New York.

Taylor had offered his own resolution to deny the seat to Billie. McGhee and Murray told a reporter that the Mississippiian could not be seated while his case is being decided. They declined to let him sit his case.

Manteno Vets Benefit From Legion Gifts

All donations collected for "Gifts For Yanks Who Gave" from Manteno organizations and individuals was spent for veterans at Manteno State hospital.

The amount collected in Manteno totaled $129.16, which was insufficient, so funds from the Kankakee campaign were also used. On Dec. 23 gifts were distributed to 45 veterans at White Cottage and 28 veterans at other cottages to make a total of 71 veterans of both World wars who were remembered here.

Gifts included 38 pairs of wool gloves, 29 ties, one pair of suspenders, 21 handkerchiefs, five leather belts, slippers, 28 pairs of woolen socks and seven woolen scarves. Sacks of candy and other treats were given to each veteran from the Legion auxiliary department of Illinois.

The gifts and treats were distributed by Mrs. Anna Powell, Mrs. Irene O'Connor and Mrs. Roxie Hayen of the Manteno auxiliary and Clarence O'Connor of the hospital staff.

Many Make Contribution

Contributions to the fund were made by the Community Council, Legion post 753, Legion auxiliary, Presbyterian Service guild, Mothers of World War II, the Sumner, Rockville and Manteno Home Bureau units, the C. D. of A., the N. O. C. W., Mentor club, Methodist church, Women's club, Mrs. Zilda Guilmonde, Miss Blanche Smith, Dr. John A. Zischels and in various boxes placed in business places in town.

Those who wrapped the gifts and filled the cellophane bags of treats were Mesdames Helen Thurston, Anna Powell, Irene O'Connor, Ned Nussbaum, Emma Payne, Dora McNeil and Mary Guertin.

Treats were also given to the veterans at Manteno hospital from the Kankakee chapter of the Red Cross, Cookies and coffee were donated by the Kankakee Girl Scouts and were served by the occupational therapy department.

Marshal Evidence To Oppose Hike In Phone Rates

Chicago, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Officials of seven Illinois cities marshalled evidence today in opposition to proposed rate increases for the Illinois Bell Telephone company.

A. L. Sargent, executive director of the Illinois Municipal League, said the seven communities agreed to present their evidence to an Illinois commerce commission hearing Tuesday in Springfield. He added there will be a final conference Monday in Chicago, and that Attorney General George F. Barkett had agreed to send a representative to the Tuesday session.

"The general attitude of the group of mayors," Sargent said, "is that they want to see any increase in telephone rates justified."

Those attending yesterday's meeting were Mayor John W. Kapp, Springfield; Charles Thomas, Rockford; Mayor George H. Bloom, Rockford; Mayor Carl Friebe, Peoria; Mayor Harold Wadlow, Alton; Mayor Don Wilson, Danville; E. P. Stolte, Evanston city attorney; and J. E. Danaher, assistant corporation counsel of Chicago.

Plan To Submit Bill To Establish Junior Colleges

Chicago, Jan. 4.—(AP)—A bill providing for a state-wide system of tuition-free junior colleges is to be submitted to the Illinois general assembly shortly after it convenes next Wednesday.

Leonard V. Koos, research director for the American Association of Junior Colleges, said last night that such a bill would be put before the legislature with the endorsement of the Illinois Education association, the University of Illinois, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Vernon Nickell and the High School Principals association.

Koos said the proposed legislation is similar to a measure which failed of passage in the legislature two years ago.

The bill would add two years to the common school system. Any high school having an enrollment of at least 500 students could establish a junior college, financed partly by the state and partly by local taxation.

Declares Crushing Of Viet-Nams Vital To Restore Peace

Paris, Jan. 4.—(AP)—The French press agency reported today that Colonial Minister Marius Moutet, now in Indo-China, has decided that Viet-Nam nationalists there must be crushed by the French army before peace can be restored.

"It is necessary to have a military decision before any negotiations can be conducted," the agency quoted Moutet as saying in an interview at Hanoi.

Moutet now has returned to Saigon after a trip to Hanoi where he and his party repeatedly came under sniper fire. He said he had had no contacts with Viet-Nam representatives during his inspection tour to the embattled capital of the Viet-Nam republic.

Dispatches yesterday said two soldiers in the guard accompanying the minister's party were killed within 100 yards of Moutet.

Just before Moutet went to Hanoi, President Ho Chi Minh of the Viet-Nam republic broadcast an invitation for a conference on the situation and yesterday another Viet-Nam broadcast appealed to Gen. LeClere, sent from Paris to take over military control, for a settlement. The broadcast said: "An equitable peace is still possible."

Burt Lancaster In Danger Of Losing His Voice

By Bob Thomas
Hollywood, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Burt Lancaster, who became a star in "The Killers," may have his career nipped by loss of voice. Two weeks ago, the actor spent an entire day playing a highly emotional scene before the cameras. Two days later his brother died. Doctors tell him the strain on his voice followed by the shock of his brother's passing has caused swelling of his vocal chords. Burt now cannot talk above a conversational tone and the condition is being aggravated by his work in "I Walk Alone." He is advised that only a desert rest will restore his full voice. But he is lined up with work for the next six months and couldn't even get time off for his honeymoon.

MGM is well satisfied with the Jane Powell-Walter Pidgeon team of "Holiday in Mexico" and their next co-starring film will be something now called "Daddy Is A Wolf," a shipboard story.

Cornel Wilde, who made the fencing team for the 1936 olympic games, claims he is intent on trying out for the 1948 squad. The actor studied the sport in Budapest. But when of Claudette Colbert and Loretta Young's, Hollywood boulevard at 2 a. m., as quiet and peaceful as main street in your town.

Deutsch has written a film "which only Garbo could do." The story is getting quite a play these days but hasn't snapped at any offer yet. "The Private Affairs of Bel Ami" got Johnston office approval after a special effects man shadowed Marie Wilson here and there.

Married life must agree with Harry James. When he wed Betty Grable four years ago he weighed 135 pounds. Today he weighs six feet one inch frame supports 200 pounds. Maybe he should advise his former employer, Mr. Sinatra.

That's what I like about Hollywood. . . Sunset over the ocean as seen from the Hollywood hills. The excitement of watching the stars arrive in their best finery at a premiere. . . The bustle of the lunch hour at the Brown Derby where a hundred big deals are cooking. . . The sight of searchlights shining the cool winter sky. . . The cacophony of swing music emanating from boulevard bistros. . . You can hear the show on the sidewalk. . . The gentility of Greg Peck and Joel McCrea. . . The charm of Claudette Colbert and Loretta Young's, Hollywood boulevard at 2 a. m., as quiet and peaceful as main street in your town.
